

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL

Called Jim Calloway, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, and discussed with him the press article over the weekend which reported that Senator Frank Church has decided against allowing Agency witnesses to have a "monitor" present when they appear before the Select Committee.

25X1

15. [redacted] Talked with Jim Woolsey, formerly with the Senate Armed Services Committee staff and now in private law practice, concerning the decision of the Senate Select Committee to deny "monitors" for Agency employees testifying before the Committee.

25X1

16. [redacted] Miss Hoffman, in the office of Representative Andrew Jacobs, called and said they had received a letter from a constituent whose son or nephew works for Air America and they have not heard from him for six months. I gave her the phone number of Air America and suggested the constituent call there directly. She thanked me for my assistance.

25X1

17. [redacted] Mr. Janka's office, NSC staff, called and advised there will be a meeting of the Legislative Interdepartmental Group at 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday, 15 May, in the Roosevelt Room. The agenda is "general review of foreign policy legislative issues."

25X1

18. [redacted] Called Clark McFadden (Senate Armed Services Committee staff), Jane McMullen (for Guy McConnell of the Senate Appropriations Committee staff), and Mildred Ward (Secretary to Senator John Stennis) to advise them of the seizure of the U.S. Merchant ship today by the Cambodians.

25X1

19. [redacted] In Mr. Cary's absence, I advised Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Committee staff, of the seizure of the U.S. Merchant ship by the Cambodians. He asked if the name of the owner of the ship was known. After checking with [redacted] I called Snodgrass back and told him the ship is owned by the Sea Land Corporation.

25X1A

20. [redacted] Accompanied Ed Proctor, DDI, to a meeting with Senator William Proxmire (D., Wis.) on his letter of 24 April 1975 requesting a briefing of his Subcommittee on Economics and Priorities in Government, Joint Economic Committee on "allocation of resources of the Soviet Union and [redacted] China." Richard Kaufman, of the Joint Committee staff, and Ron Tammen, of the Senator's personal staff, were also in attendance. (See Memorandum for the Record.)

25X1

CONFIDENTIAL